

HKUST Athletes Strive for Their Best in HKUST-UM Sports Challenge

Cup at UM Campus on 22 April 2017

It was the 18th Anniversary of the HKUST-UM Sports Challenge Cup, the annual sports contest between HKUST and UM. Total 227 members of HKUST including 6 staff from Sports and Wellness Team in Student Affairs Office, 11 part-time coaches and 210 student athletes completed in 16 events (in 14 sports) at the campus of the University of Macau on 22 April 2017 (Saturday). This year, dragon boat became a new event in the Challenge. Finally, HKUST won in dragon boat, fencing and squash and the rival team won in other 13 events. Through exciting competitions, student athletes from both universities had a valuable opportunity for sports exchange and consolidated the foundation of friendships built between two institutions.

Teams line up in the opening ceremony of HKUST-UM Challenge Cup and get ready for the competition.

Congratulations to Men's Dragon Boat team! They win the first dragon boat race in HKUST-UM Sports Challenge Cup with 2:0 early in the morning.

Well done for Fencing team! They beat UM by 3:2.

Our Squash team performs for their best and wins with 8:1. Congratulations to the team!

Both football teams show the sportsmanship before the match.

Table-tennis competition is exciting as both teams have to play the extra mixed double to decide who the winner is.

Both Athletic teams are delighted to have a close competition with each other.

Swimming team gains valuable experience during the competitions.

Taekwondo teams from both universities perform an enjoyable martial art show for the audience.

Korfball team tries their best in the competition.

Happy faces of HKUST Sport Climbing team members after competitions.

Group photo of both volleyball teams before competitions.

HKUST-UM Sports Challenge Cup provides more chances of competitions for women's basketball team.

Thanks for the efforts of athletes, staff and officials, the 18th HKUST-UM Sports Challenge Cup ended successfully.
