

HKUST Athletes paid their maximum efforts in the 20th HKUST-UM Sports Challenge Cup at UM Campus on 27 April 2019

It was the 20th Anniversary of the HKUST-UM Sports Challenge Cup which has been an annual sports tournament between HKUST and UM since 2000. Headed by the Acting Dean of Students, Prof King CHOW, about 220 HKUST student athletes, coaches and staff participated in 14 events (in 12 sports) of the 20th HKUST-UM Sports Challenge Cup at the University of Macau on Saturday, 27 April 2019. HKUST athletes won the Squash, Fencing, Table-tennis and Sport Climbing events, and the rival team won in the other 8 events. Nevertheless, Track & Field and Tennis competitions were cancelled due to bad weather. What's more, the University of Macau invited us to join the 20th Anniversary Dinner with singing performance by our Sports Association representatives, Benjamin Chu and Oscar Fung. Through exciting competitions and team gathering, student athletes from both universities fostered sports exchange and consolidated the foundation of friendship built between two universities.

Big congratulations to Table-tennis Team!
They beat the opponent with 5:0.

Fencing Team take the game by 4:3.

Our Squash Team makes their effort paid off and won with 5:0. Congratulations to the team!

Sport Climbing Team managed to beat UM by 24:18.

Tennis competition was cancelled due to bad weather, but the athletes of both teams did have a quality time spent with each other!

Track & Field competition was also cancelled because of the bad weather. The athletes shared their view and experience on training.

The swimming competition is really close this year!

HKUST-UM Sports Challenge Cup is a great opportunity for our Women's Basketball Team to play against high-quality team.
